Arrangement of Air Ticket and Living Allowance:

Air Ticket

As soon as the awardees are selected, the AUN Secretariat will prepare and send a round trip ticket to the awardees through their universities.

Living Allowance

A: Amount of the allowance: Students will be granted a living allowance of $300 US Dollars per month.

B: Transfer of the allowance: Living allowances will be given to the students on a monthly basis by the International Office of Daejeon University.

In the case that the students have to return to their home countries prior to the proposed completion date and have already received their monthly allowance, they shall transfer the living allowance of the remaining period back to Daejeon University or the AUN Secretariat within 10 days. The academic transcript of the students shall be withheld by Daejeon University until the remaining living allowance is returned to Daejeon University or the AUN Secretariat.

Insurance:

Only basic health insurance will be covered by Daejeon University and the AUN Secretariat. However, all awardees must be responsible for their own health and life insurance during the exchange period in Korea. Daejeon University and the AUN Secretariat will not take responsibility for any incurred expenses.

Upon Arrival:

All students will meet with an officer from the International Office of DJU upon their arrival at the Incheon International Airport.

Living Arrangements:

Living arrangements are provided for the students in fully furnished dorm rooms. Two students will share one dormitory unit. Each room is equipped with heating system, a microwave, a refrigerator, a telephone, and internet connection. During the semester, meals (3 meals per day) are served for the student at the cafeteria on the ground floor of the dormitory building. During the winter vacation the meals are not included. Students should buy the meals for themselves on their own expenses.
Visa:
As soon as the selection of the awardees has been made, DJU will send the „Certificate of Admission“ to each student through their universities. Upon receiving it, awardees should contact the Korean Embassy/Consulate in their home country to allow them sufficient time to process their visa application. The student shall apply for the appropriate type of visa as early as possible on their own expenses. After that please let the AUN Secretariat knows the results of the visa application immediately. Air tickets of the students will not be sent to the student unless the AUN Secretariat receives a confirmation on the visa completion.
