

Supavij Vejpsitpakorn

Head, Global Partnerships Unit
Chulalongkorn University

Supavij is currently serves as Head of the Global Partnerships Unit in the Global Networking and Engagement Division (GNED), the Office of International Affairs and Global Network (OIA) at Chulalongkorn University. His primary responsibilities include: (1) monitoring and providing answers/information to the inquiries from external parties, on Chula's global collaborations and/or on the scope of work related to the GNED and (2) planning the execution of the project, facilitating and monitoring the activities/project, promoting and disseminating related information to the stakeholders through the collaboration with responsible work units/organizations.

Prior to his current position, Supavij served as a Public Relations and Media Strategist at the OIA for two years. In this role, he was responsible for PR and communications to maintain contact with the Chulalongkorn community, partner universities, international staff, researchers and students.

Before joining the OIA, he served as a Public Relations and Communication Officer at the Global Relations Division of Mae Fah Luang University for seven years. He also worked as a Senior Graphic and Publication Officer at the British International School Phuket for five years.

Supavij holds a Master's Degree in Management from the Graduate School of Advanced Technology Management at Assumption University and a Bachelor's Degree in Management Information System from Walailak University.