

Global Korea Model United Nations
Delegation* Registration Guideline

I

Registration Instruction

1. Delegation Registration for GKMUN 2024 is offered as invite-only. If your school/university/community wishes to be invited, please send an expression of interest to contact@gkmun.perpika.com. Our team will then send the invitation letter, collaboration proposal (including the delegation rates), and the registration form to your delegation.
2. The period for delegation registration begins from 18 March to 10 July 2024 at 23:59 KST. It is important to note that there will be no extensions of the registration deadline.
3. Upon registering, all members of your delegation are required to input all necessary information, including council and country preferences as outlined in the delegation registration form.
4. Fill in the registration form accordingly and pay the fee according to the registration package of your choice. GKMUN registrants have the flexibility to select from basic, full, and online experience packages.
5. After filling the form and making the payment, access the linktr.ee/gkmun and choose “Join as Delegation.”
6. Upload all the documents per each delegate, and then submit the registration form.
7. A confirmation e-mail will be sent within 2 (two) days after your submission. Acceptance to GKMUN will be evaluated based on the maximum capacity of each council and the availability of preferred countries within each council.
8. For further information and updates, please follow us on Social Media (Instagram & TikTok: @gkmun.2024, LinkedIn & Facebook: Global Korea Model United Nations). You could also contact us via delegates@gkmun.perpika.com for any inquiries related to Registration. Delegates requiring visa support documentation must contact GKMUN directly at travel@gkmun.perpika.com. The visa support and travel assistance will be available from April 15, 2024, to June 30, 2024.

Terms and Conditions for Registration

This Agreement governs the attendance of all participants ("Delegates") at the Global Korea MUN ("Conference"). Global Korea Model United Nations is referred to as "GKMUN" in this Agreement.

The information provided in this document is intended for general use and may not apply to all geographic locations. GKMUN will reasonably try to maintain accurate and up-to-date content on this site. However, GKMUN reserves the right to modify information at any time.

1. Delegates must be 15 to 28 years old at the time of the conference to be eligible to attend GKMUN (experienced delegates as young as 12 years old are eligible to register for the online council).
2. To confirm attendance at the conference, participants must complete the e-registration process through linktr.ee/gkmun.
3. Delegates must adhere to registration deadlines, whether individually or as part of a delegation, to participate in GKMUN.
4. It is essential to verify the accuracy of the information provided during the registration process. GKMUN cannot be held accountable for any inaccuracies.
5. Upon arrival in the host city, delegates are solely responsible for their own safety and security. GKMUN bears no liability for any loss or damage to delegates or their belongings, including personal injury, unless attributable solely to the gross negligence or willful misconduct of GKMUN.
6. GKMUN holds no responsibility for actions taken by governmental or public authorities, including the denial of consent or clearance for attendance.

Refund Policy

All payments made are non-refundable regardless of any reason.

Parental Consent for Delegates Under 19 Years Old

The legal age in the Republic of Korea is 19 years old. Hence, participants under the age of 19 who will attend the conference in person MUST fill in and upload the Parental Consent Form in order to participate in GKMUN. Those who will be accompanied by a guardian or a parent during the conference MUST provide to the GKMUN Secretariat the information of the accompanying adult(s), and are exempt from filling out the Parental Consent Form.

Important

1. Please note that this document is intended solely for individuals participating in the event in person/offline.

2. The failure to provide guardian/parent information does not absolve us of any inconvenience that may arise. Furthermore, guardians/parents are NOT permitted to participate in any aspect of the GKMUN agenda.

Minors seeking to participate in GKMUN must submit a signed consent form by their legal guardians indicating their understanding of and compliance with the following conditions:

1. Participants under the age of 19 and traveling alone for GKMUN must have their legal guardians complete and sign the Parental Consent Form before being allowed to attend the conference.
2. If the participating minor will have an accompanying adult (guardian or parent) throughout the conference, they must inform the GKMUN Secretariat by filling in the section for it in the registration form.
3. The legal guardian of the participant acknowledges and agrees that the participant will be held personally responsible for their safety throughout their travel for GKMUN and during the conference, as well as if any charges or damages were incurred to any facilities throughout the conference.
4. The legal guardian also acknowledges that the participant will be subject to the same Code of Conduct and rules as adult participants and will accept any consequences and be held accountable for any actions that negatively impact the conference or other delegates.
5. The GKMUN Secretariat reserves the right to refuse participation to minors who do not comply with these conditions or whose behavior is deemed inappropriate or disruptive.

Code of Conduct

1. By completing the registration process, registered delegates certify that all information provided is truthful and accurate. It is understood that any falsification of information will disqualify the individual from participating in GKMUN and future GKMUN activities, and may result in legal action.
2. Delegates commit to producing original work for the conference and agree that plagiarism will not be tolerated. Any instances of plagiarism discovered by the GKMUN Secretariat will result in consequences for the individual.
3. While participating in GKMUN, delegates are expected to abide by the laws of the Republic of Korea. They will be held personally responsible for any charges or damages incurred to conference facilities and social event venues.
4. Delegates acknowledge and assume full risk for their participation in GKMUN. GKMUN Secretariat does not assume responsibility for delegates' conduct and activities.
5. Delegates agree to adhere to the Code of Conduct published and determined by the GKMUN Secretariat. They will accept any consequences and be held accountable for any actions that negatively impact the conference or other delegates.
6. GKMUN cannot be held liable for any misconduct or crimes committed by the delegates. Delegates will be held accountable for their actions under Republic of Korea laws.

Conference Etiquette

Delegates are expected to be respectful of both the in-person and online conference environment and the following online professional behaviors:

1. Dress Code (Business Attire)

Conference etiquette requires you to look presentable and professional according to the dress code. You must dress in a way that is modest, clean, and avoids unnecessary distractions. You have to dress well and nightdress or any immodest clothing should be strictly avoided.

2. Be Respectful

Allow your fellow delegates and the Chairs to speak, invite others to share, and respect other's ideas. Please be focused and put full concentration during the conferences. Maintain your posture in order to create a respectful impression towards your fellow delegates.

3. Being Wary of the Environment

Access conferences without causing any distraction or disruption to sessions. Kindly adhere to the rules outlined by GKMUN 2024 and maintain a civilized demeanor throughout the entirety of the conference

4. Microphone Awareness (online)

Kindly mute your microphone when it's not your turn to speak. Remember that your fellow delegates and the Chairs can hear noises in your environment such as dogs barking, family member conversations, TV sounds, whispering, chewing, sneezing, and tapping your pen or pencil, etc. Please keep distractions to a minimum or mute your microphone. It is preferable that you find a quiet place in your home to isolate and be free from distraction.

5. Camera Awareness (online)

During periods of synchronous conference, it is required that you be live on camera the entire time. The chairman will be cognizant of your presence and the record of your adherence to this policy will be maintained. This is important to verify your participation. There will be consequences for violating this policy which can lead to penalty of your overall performance that will affect your eligibility to win awards in GKMUN 2024.

Frequently Asked Questions

1. Conference

a. What is Model United Nation?

"Model United Nations," is an educational simulation and academic activity in which participants typically role-play as delegates to the United Nations and simulate UN committees. Participants represent different countries and engage in discussions and debates on various global issues, aiming to develop diplomatic skills, negotiate resolutions, and understand international relations. MUN provides a platform for students and individuals to enhance their understanding of diplomacy, international cooperation, and problem-solving while fostering critical thinking.

b. Why should I participate in Global Korea Model United Nations?

Global Korea Model United Nations (GKMUN) offers an enriching opportunity for personal, academic, and professional growth. By participating, delegates will gain a deeper understanding of global issues, enhance your intercultural competence through cultural exchange, and develop essential skills such as public speaking, critical thinking, and negotiation. Furthermore, GKMUN fosters personal growth by challenging delegates to step out of their comfort zone, collaborate with others, and become a more engaged global citizen.

c. How does GKMUN conference work?

Delegates will represent a country and are expected to solve a particular issue in different councils. You will be given time to share your ideas, draft arguments, and write working papers. Delegates could discuss a range of topics related to their committee and by the end, delegates will be tasked to write a resolution that hopefully accomplishes their committee objectives.

d. What is Position Paper?

A position paper is a document that outlines a delegate's country or organization's stance on a particular topic or issue that will be discussed in the committee. It should include background information, proposed solutions, and evidence to support the delegate's argument. The paper helps delegates organize their thoughts and prepare for debate by providing a clear understanding of their country's position, enabling them to articulate their views effectively during the conference. It is usually not longer than 2 page and has a specific format.

The example of Position Paper Format:

Committee : UNFCCC
Country : South Korea
Delegate Name : Hanni
Topic Area : Climate Migration

As for the content, divide the paper into 3 parts:

1. Introduction: Introduce the Topic and your country's position on the Topic.
2. Body: Elaborate what your country wants from the Committee and what your country has done concerning the specific Topic.
3. Conclusion: Emphasize your claims and summarize your paper.

Each delegate is required to submit a position paper before the conference, otherwise they will not be eligible for awards at reputable conferences.

e. What is Draft Resolution?

A written proposal that outlines the solutions and actions a committee could take to address a particular issue or topic. It is usually presented by one or more countries or delegates in the committee and must be supported by a majority of the committee members to be passed. Draft resolution consists of three main parts, such as the heading, the preamble, and the operative section. The draft resolution serves as a basis for debate and discussion in the committee, with the goal of reaching a consensus among delegates and ultimately passing a final resolution.

f. How can I prepare for GKMUN?

Preparing for GKMUN involves a multi-faceted approach that includes research, skill development, and strategy. First, familiarize yourself with the conference rules and procedures, and study the topics on the agenda. Then, hone your public speaking and negotiation skills by participating in simulations, debates, and workshops. Additionally, develop your research abilities by delving into the history, policies, and positions of the countries or organizations you'll represent.

g. When is the conference? Do I have to attend all 3 days?

The in-person conference will be held on 24 to 27 July in FKI Convention, Seoul, South Korea. Delegates are required to attend all three days to receive your certificate of participation.

2. Registration
