

Chalathip Jayanama

Head, International Protocol and Information Support Service Unit
Chulalongkorn University

Chalathip is currently Head of the Unit of International Protocol and Information Support Service, Office of International Affairs and Global Network at Chulalongkorn University. Her role primarily involves organizing and coordinating official visits, including state visits as well as visits by embassy representatives, and representatives of partner universities. Additionally, she oversees her team's activities related to establishing and signing a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between Chulalongkorn University and its partners. She collaborates closely with the Public Relations and Media strategist to develop comprehensive communication strategies that are in line with the University's goals and values. Her team is also responsible for providing up-to-date and relevant information about Chulalongkorn University and its partners in order to ensure that the University can actively engage with other institutions and foster collaborative relationships.

Working at the Office of International Affairs and Global Network, Chalathip had been in charge of the International Protocol and MoU Sector for 15 years before serving as Head of the Degree Unit, Division of Global Academic Affairs for 2 years. After that, she had served as Head of the Unit of Strategic Operation Management for 2 years before she was transferred to become Head of the Unit of International Protocol and Information Support Service. Chalathip received her Bachelor's Degree in Social Sciences from Srinakharinwirot University and obtained a Master's Degree in International Relations from Macquarie University, Australia. Since then, she has been working at Chulalongkorn University until now.