

Assoc. Prof. Palanee Ammaranond, Ph.D.

Vice President

Chulalongkorn University

Associate Professor Palanee Ammaranond, Ph.D earned a B.Sc in Medical Technology from Chulalongkorn University in 1992, an M.Sc in Biotechnology from Mahidol University in 1995, and a Ph.D.in Immunology from the University of New South Wales, Australia in 2005.

Since she joined the Faculty of Allied Health Sciences at Chulalongkorn University, she has served in various capacities, including Deputy Dean for Research Affairs and Head of the Department of Blood Transfusion and Clinical Microbiology. In 2016, her tenure at the Faculty has been marked by her ascent to the role of Dean.

Associate Professor Palanee Ammaranond, Ph.D has been a board member of significant organizations, including the Association of Medical Technologists of Thailand (AAMT) and the Asia Association of Medical Laboratory Scientists (AAMLS). She has also served as President of Thailand Advisory Board of International American Society for Clinical Pathology (ASCPi) and the ASEAN Association for Clinical Laboratory Sciences (AACLS).

Her expertise in HIV-specific laboratories earned her prestigious awards and scholarships, including an Excellent Ph.D. Thesis Award 2008 (First Prize), an Australian Development Scholarship, and a Royal Thai Government Scholarship.

In May 2024, she was appointed Vice President to promote Chulalongkorn University's global presence and to strengthen academic and research collaborations.