

Supavij Vejpisitpakorn

Head of Global Partnerships Unit
Chulalongkorn University

Supavij currently serves as the Head of the Global Partnerships Unit within the Global Networking and Engagement Division (GNED) at the Office of International Affairs and Global Network (OIA), Chulalongkorn University.

In this capacity, he leads the implementation of major international initiatives, including the Chula-AUN Summer Camp 2025 hosted by Chulalongkorn University, the AUN Summer Camp 2025 hosted by partner universities, the Learning Journeys program, and the development of the new OIA website.

He is also responsible for coordinating all activities, events, and collaborations between Chulalongkorn University and the ASEAN University Network (AUN), as well as between Chulalongkorn University and the ASEAN–European Academic University Network (ASEA-UNINET).

With over 20 years of experience in Thai and international education—spanning universities and international schools—he brings extensive expertise and valuable insights to his work.

Supavij holds a Master's Degree in Management from the Graduate School of Advanced Technology Management at Assumption University and a Bachelor's Degree in Management Information Systems from Walailak University.
