CAS-ANSO Scholarship

The Alliance of National and International Science Organizations for the Belt and Road Regions (ANSO) is a non-profit, non-governmental international organization founded in 2018. Founding members include the Chinese Academy of Sciences (CAS) and 36 other scientific institutions, universities, and international organizations worldwide.

CAS-ANSO Scholarship has two categories: degree program and non-degree program. The degree program offers full scholarship to support young talents from all over the world to pursue postgraduate education at UCAS and institutes of CAS around China.

It includes:

Chinese Government Scholarship

UCAS is a designated university for the Chinese Government Scholarship. In addition to Chinese Government Scholarship–High Level Postgraduate Program and Belt and Road Initiative Program, UCAS also accepts students awarded under Chinese Government Scholarship–Bilateral Program, China–Europe Exchange Program, China–AUN Scholarship Program, and other scholarship programs.

Applicants should meet the requirements of both China Scholarship Council (<https://www.campuschina.org/>) and UCAS.

UCAS

Scholarship

UCAS Scholarship for International Students consists of both a full scholarship and a partial scholarship. The full scholarship provides tuition waiver, application fee waiver, monthly stipend, basic accommodation and medical insurance; while the partial scholarship covers some items of the Full.

UCAS also welcomes applications from recipients of other forms of financial support, such as foreign government scholarships, higher education institution scholarships, international organization scholarships, or those who are self-funded to study in China.
